Interesting Caravan Visits

Many people from town and area took advantage of the visit by Alberta Caravan Exhibits to tour the trailers and the many interesting displays.

The caravan arrived in Drayton Valley Saturday from a Friday stand in Evansburg and set up on the Centennial Civic Centre parking lot. The exhibits were open to the public from Sunday afternoon to Tuesday when the trailers moved on to the next stand. They will locate at Stony Plain on September 24th and 25.

The caravan consisted of five exhibition trailers and one power trailer and is operated by Ace Foundation, a Calgary-based, private, non-profit organization. The displays have been sponsored by exhibitors with varied interests and objectives and each tells a story in a unique way.

Speaker Urges Establishment Of Preventive Social Services

About thirty persons, many representing town organizations, were present in St. Anthony's School last Thursday evening to hear and take part in a discussion on Preventive Social Services.

Guest speaker at the meeting, sponsored by the Christian Women's Social Action Group, was Councillor R. Zander of the County of Parkland. Mr. Zander, in outlining the need for preventive social services, stressed the loss of the family group in the steady decline of the Canadian social structure.

In urging the establishment of a preventive program in the area of the County of Parkland and towns within its boundaries, Mr. Zander noted that the province of Alberta spends $60 million annually on welfare. In areas where such programs are operating he noted there is a distinct saving in tax dollars.

Mr. Zander outlined the operation of preventive programs underway in Lacombe and Leduc Counties, two of quite a number now established throughout the province. Both counties operated $21,000 programs with about 80 percent of the cost borne by the provincial government.

Both counties have employed directors who travel extensively throughout the area and are also responsible for the training of interested citizens who are an important part of the success of the program.

Preventive Social Services, Mr. Zander said, are designed to develop community awareness and resources and to strengthen and preserve human initiative and avoid individual and family breakdowns. It is any activity in which all members of a community can avail themselves for the enrichment of their lives.

Rotary Plans Annual Auction

The Drayton Valley Rotary Club has announced plans for its annual auction sale to be held Friday, October 9th at 5:00 p.m. in front of the I.G.A. store.

All proceeds from the sale, which has been an annual fall event for the past several years, will go toward the improvement of local parks, the children's playground and other community services.

Members of the club will be out canvassing the town shortly for donations to help the undertaking. Club members ask that you watch for notice of collection date in your area and check the garage or basement to see if you have saleable items that might help the club in a successful auction.

Agreement Reached On Ambulance Plan

Plans for an ambulance service in the area of Drayton Valley and Breton Hospital Districts was given the green light at a committee meeting in Drayton Valley on Friday, September 18th.

Delegates had met at an earlier meeting and taken the proposal back to their respective municipal bodies where approval to proceed was given.

Present for the meeting were Councillors R. Zander and Ivan Vowk, County of Parkland; Mayor Harry Staudt of Breton; Councillors H. Hansen and A. Carron, County of Leduc: Councillor E. Yerman, Warburg; and W. G. Johanneson, Secretary-Treasurer, Town of Drayton Valley. The Wetaskiwin representative, A. Daneluk was unable to attend, as were members from the Drayton Valley Council.

The meeting went on to study ambulances available and it was decided that as many as possible would travel to Red Deer this week to examine vehicles recommended by Sorensen Distributors Ltd.

Fees for the ambulance service were incorrectly reported in last week's paper and should read $25.00 for trips outside the ambulance district, and $10.00 for residents requiring trips within the district. Non-residents of the area will pay the normal existing rates for ambulance service in Alberta.

Urges Preventive Social Services

The total program undertaken in various parts of the province, as outlined by the Provincial Department of Social Development is to change the environment towards a better living situation. The second dimension is to create the opportunity for people to achieve greater individual initiative and enrichment within their environment.

It was noted at the meeting that no family is immune from social problems. Some families recognize the problem and will seek assistance while others become detached and isolated and their critical condition is unknown until a crisis develops.

Preventive services, Mr. Zander said, will locate the problems in the community and endeavor to solve them before they become critical.

Mr. Zander suggested the possibility of getting a program underway throughout the area at an early date. Full co-operation of all citizens is an important first step, he said.

With citizens informed and supporting such a program, he then suggested an approach to municipal governments with a request to set the machinery of such a program in motion. He suggested a co-operative venture between the County of Parkland and the Towns of Drayton Valley and Stony Plain.

He urged the representatives of clubs present at the meeting to carry the message back to their organizations with a request for action and total organization of the area at an early date.

Following questions from the floor, representatives of the Christian Women's Social Action Group outlined the organization's activities.

The women's group was organized in 1968 with two women from each church in Drayton Valley present. The object of the organization is to try and head off local teenage and adult problems before they become serious.

The action group covers four main areas that were reported by committee heads at Thursday's meeting.

Mrs. Eva Hennesey reported on the field of education which stresses the drug problem and an effort to make parents and teenagers more knowledgable on the subject and to attempt to better understand those who use them.

Mrs. Hennesey also described the "Living Today" program, another educational feature designed to cover the topics of dating, marriage, marriage breakdown and similar subjects.

The clothing depot was the subject of Mrs. D. Mohr's report. She described the work of the committee in taking in, repairing, sorting and distribution of clothing to persons in need.

The welcoming committee, outlined by Mrs. M. Gill, greets newcomers to the community and provides them with a directory of churches, organizations, professional and recreational facilities available in Drayton Valley. The communittee endeavors to make the move to a new community a less lonely experience.

Mrs. Lisa Krabbe reported for her home visitors committee of eleven women. The committee visits the needy and works in conjunction with the local welfare officer who has praised their efforts in the community.

It was noted that the action group has a small membership and a very heavy work load and for this reason seeks the help of more willing citizens concerned about the grave social ills prevalent in our society today.

Committee heads also answered a number of questions from the floor before the conclusion of the meeting.

Waterfowl Begin Southward Move

The most exciting time of the waterfowl year is here as the ducks and geese begin to gather for the flight south. The anxieties of the breeding season are past, and the thrill of flocks moving across the sky is there for all to enjoy.

Hunters can anticipate another good season in the marshes and fields according to the current issue of Ducks Unlimited's "Duck-ological."

Summer across the prairies could hardly have been better for late broods. Day after day of warm, dry weather with abundant water, stored by the good spring run-off and heavy spring rains, gave them every opportunity to mature. Even at this date there are flightless broods but there is no lack of water to see them safely away.

The realization that fall was rapidly approaching came as a surprise when, in the lanquor and warmth of late summer, white-fronted geese suddenly appeared in central Alberta on August 24th. Their numbers have been steadily increasing ever since.

In late August and early September, Canada geese and sandhill cranes were also moving through northern Saskatchewan to their traditional concentration areas in the wheatlands of the central and southern parts of the province.

Although there are plenty still here in Canada, many blue-winged teal and pintail are no doubt well south of the border by now. These traditionally early migrants moved by the calendar, for there has been no weather which would make them desert the prairies at this lush time of year.

Pintail and mallard are concentrating in the larger marshes and feeding flights to the adjacent stubble fields are a common sight.

Major Provincial Concern

Welfare Problem Tackled

Unemployment is one of the major concerns in our province. The rate of unemployment in Alberta is not as high as that in other provinces as our economy is expanding. The influx of people from other provinces to Alberta has kept our unemployment rate high, said the Honourable R. A. Speaker, Alberta Minister of Social Development recently.

The unemployment rate has a direct effect on the number of people that are receiving public assistance. It has been found that the average increase of cost at the municipal level is 70% and that govemment costs have increased about 20%. Project of the provincial budget increase will be 9 to 10 million dollars over the present budget of $40,-000,000. The govemment has taken a number of steps to curtail this increase in costs.

It has implemented the Employment Opportunity Program which has been found successful in light of the high rate of unemployment. The Department of Social Development with cooperation of business, has placed 325 persons that were on public assistance in jobs. The government has an accumulated savings of around $110,000,000. This amount is projected to approximately $1,000,000 as of March 31, 1971. This program will continue, Mr. Speaker said.

Secondly, the govemment has appointed two special investigators to the staff of the Department of Social Development. These investigators will have the responsibility of investigating cases referred to them by the general public or by social workers who recommend further assessment of a certain case. The govemment is counting on the public for notification if they see inconsistencies in the public assistance program.

Thirdly, the rates of assistance have been lowered to those who are unemployed employables. Most persons in the category of unemployed employables receive temporary assistance or short term assistance. The basic needs to be met are food and shelter. It is assumed that such people have sufficient clothing and household incidentals to maintain themselves until re-employed. Only in extreme cases are they allowed household or personal incidentals or clothing allowances.

Fourthly, the government is establishing Citizen Committees who will be able to work with regional offices and citizens of various area. It is felt that if the welfare recipient has a complaint towards the department, they can appeal to this Citizens' Committee, who in turn can make a decision. Similarly, a citizen may appeal for the needs of a resident or report a case of abuse to the Citizen Committee.

Fifthly, the Government of Alberta and the Department of Social Development request that citizens of communities take the necessary responsibilities when seeing abuse or irregularities, or wish to recommend that certain persons be given an amount of financial assistance. The govemment is able to carry out its responsiblities with the constant involvement of every citizen.

These are a number of things that have been done as the govemment of Alberta, to be fair to those who are in need of public assistance and to be responsible with the tax dollar.

Editorial Comment

Alberta at the Cross Roads

We believe Progressive Conservative M.L.A. Dave Russell made several interesting points in a recent speech to a Calgary service club.

Rapid growth in Edmonton and Calgary, he said, has trapped policy-makers into using traditional methods to solve changing problems. The usual result of such methods has been that the cities were "locked into situations where common sense has been thrown out the window."

One example cited was the locating of the Alberta Government Telephones head office on a busy intersection in Edmonton at a land cost of $1.2 million per acre. Suggestions that the head office be built on cheaper land in a nearby centre such as Wetaskiwin were laughed out of the legislature, he said.

Competition between Calgary and Edmonton for major building developments has drawn most of the province's growth to the cities, at the expense of smaller centres.

We believe that leadership in halting this trend is the responsibility of the provincial government, which certainly should not compound the problem by continuing to be a part of it.

We don't suggest that it's necessary to remove head offices from the cities, but we do believe that the provincial government could take the lead in diversification to smaller communities and encourage business and industry to follow its example.

Alberta has reached a critical stage in its history with dwindling rural population and enormous growth in Calgary and Edmonton creating a most unfavorable situation that demands immediate corrective measures and leadership by elected representatives in the legislature.

A Great Improvement

We feel obliged to comment on road work carried out this summer by County of Parkland crews. Work on a number of district roads has brought them to a very high standard and improved them immensely from their previous condition.

N.C.2, a soft asphalt oil (next in grade to hot asphalt) has been applied to four miles on the Easyford road, two and one half miles on either end of the Lodgepole road, and in cooperation with the town of Drayton Valley to the previously dusty, rough stretch from the town's southern boundary to Highway 57. There could be more, but these are the roads familiar to us.

Anyone acquainted with the previous condition of these sections of road will probably be delighted, as we were, to find a smooth, hard surface replacing the dust and potholes of a few months ago.

Air Cadets Advised Of Important Parade

Parade #3 of the 1970-71 year will commence at 1900 hours at Frank Maddock High School Gymnasium. Dress for all ranks: 5A blues. Emphasis is placed on haircuts, brass and shoes. Demerit points will begin at this parade for unmilitary and untidy haircuts and unshone, dirty brass and shoes.

The syllabus for the parade will include an indoctrination and orientation talk for all ranks to be given by the commanding officer. This talk will include the duties, responsibilites and regulations as they pertain to each cadet whether he be the most junior or the most senior. It will also inform all of the priviledges, benefits and awards available to those who wish to work. This parade is important in that it will provide the basis for each subsequent parade.

In addition it is the intention of the supply officer to bring every 2nd, 3rd, and 4th year cadet up to top standard kit issue. This is another good reason to turn out with your uniform - to trade any portion of it that is not fitting properly or is getting worn.

Commanding officer W. G. Johanneson says every officer is interested in making this a full and active year and it can only be accomplished by each giving his full and complete support.

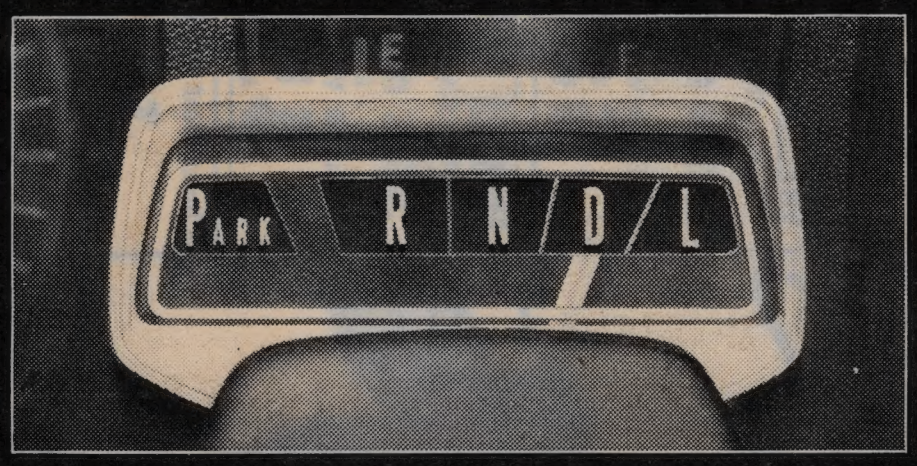
DATSUN 1600 AUTOMATIC



It's so good we're thinking of making the stickshift an option

There are semi-automatic small cars.
There are two-speed automatic small cars.
And there are big-car automatic transmissions awkwardly stuffed into small cars.
To us, none of these makes sense.

Which is why we developed the Datsun 1600 automatic
It's a three-speed automatic transmission that's designed to work with Datsun 1600's gear ratios. To put it simply, the transmission is engineered to match the engine's performance. It sounds logical enough, but it isn't true of every car. We took a lot of trouble to make sure our automatic transmission didn't rob the engine of horsepower. We were careful to see that the difference in gas mileage was hardly appreciable . . . and that Datson 1600's performance remained just as sharp.
After all, Datsun 1600 has won more international rallies than any car in its class, so it has a reputation to maintain.

An automatic transmission is usually an option
We make a great stickshift, and it sells for a bit less.
But in today's traffic conditions, Datsun 1600 automatic makes so much sense, that maybe we ought to make the stickshift the option.

Leadership Courses Held Recently in Drayton Valley

The Parkland Regional Recreation Department in co-operation with the Drayton Valley Recreation Department and the Lac Ste. Anne Regional Recreation Department sponsored two leadership courses in Drayton Valley, September 7th, 8th, and 9th.

Eleven ladies from Lac Ste. Anne, Drayton Valley and the surrounding area participated in the three days Dressmaking Course held in the Drayton Valley Jr. High School. Mrs. Sheila Brown taught the ladies on the basis of each of them going back to their own community to teach. Monthly in-service sessions will be held at various locations in the County as a follow-up to the course.

At the same time, a leadership course in Pottery was held at the Drayton Valley Craft Center. Nine ladies were sponsored by the three recreation departments and methods in handbuilding was taught enabling the future instructors to teach pottery right in their own community. Firing of the pots will be done in area craft centers, thus cutting down on cost of expensive equipment in communities where interest for pottery exists.

As a follow-up to these two courses and others to be held in September, the Parkland Regional Recreation Department will sponsor a two day general leadership course on September 24th and 25th in Stony Plain for all instructors. Teaching techniques, group and community development and leadership awareness will be covered. Interested persons are free to attend this course. For further information call the Parkland Regional Recreation Department at 777-2211.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING IN ROUND DANCING

This year many community Boards are planning to offer Round Dancing on a once-a-month basis for their people in the communities. Many have expressed a wish to have some type of family program where parents and children can join in a program together.

Round Dancing is an ideal family program. Many engaged in round dancing at the Summer '70 program and know it is simple to learn for all ages -- and a lot of fun for everyone.

A monthly Leadership Course for community leaders will be held during the fall and winter. The first one will be held on Wednesday, October 7th from 7:00 p.m. -- 10:00 p.m., at the Recreation Office in Stony Plain. Man and wife can attend these courses as a team or any other persons who would wish to teach others in their community.

Please phone the Recreation Department in Stony Plain at 777-2211 as soon as possible if you have someone from your community who can attend the Round Dancing Leadership Course starting October 7th.

FROM THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Another phase of school ground improvement was in evidence this week as the children pitched in to help clear the schoolyard of rocks. You wouldn't believe how many rocks are out there.

This week also saw the arrival of a dry-copier machine for this school. This machine makes ditto masters from a printed page or diagrams. The master copies are then used in a ditto machine to make individual copies for the children. This machine is much appreciated by all teachers.

From Mrs. Colberts room: "Class, you know that a synonym is a word that means almost the same as another word. Can you give me the synonym for strike? One of the girls answered, 'mail.'

And then there was the day when Mr. Elliott tried to find out who was the owner of a lunch that turned up at the office. After an intercom announcement, and several hours later, Mr. Betton, vice-principal, claimed it.

TOM JOHNSON

For Mayor

Fellow of the Canadian Institute of Realtors; member Gideons International in Canada; has served as President and Secretary of Drayton Valley and District Chamber of Commerce; member of Drayton Valley Town Council from January 1968 to September 1970. Acting Mayor January 1970 to September 1970.

KEEP DRAYTON VALLEY GROWING

Drayton Valley has enjoyed marked progress during the past year. Two new residential subdivisions have been opened, comprising 29 class "A" lots and 21 Class "B" lots. Already some 28 lots have been taken up for new and moved in residential building, leaving only 2 class "B" lots not spoken for. In addition to this, a mobile home subdivision has been approved and is now under development, with 50 lots now being serviced with water and sewer, in the first stage of development of this subdivision. There is a continuing need for more low cost housing in Drayton Valley, and to meet this need another class "B" subdivision must be created during the next few months so as to be ready for the 1971 building season. There are many people living and working in the surrounding area, who want to live in Drayton Valley, and who will locate here if housing is made available, at a reasonable cost. Far-sighted thinking and planning is needed to meet this potential.

At the same time, any diversification of our industrial and economic base that can be realized, provides insurance for the future economic life of the community. We do not have any grandiose dreams of new major industrial developments here, in the forseeable future. We do know that several small industries can be attracted to the community, if the right initiative is taken. Closely related to this, is the proposed new airport for Drayton Valley. Your present Council has optioned sufficient land around the proposed airport site, to provide ample space for the type of industrial and commercial development that we know will be attracted if this development goes forward. I am pleased to say that I have had a considerable part in the initiative that has gone into this development to date.

It will be argued by some, that "Development Costs Money", and it will be suggested that we cannot afford this. I believe that Stagnation Costs Even More Money, and I know that we cannot afford to let our Community stagnate.

If your property values are to be maintained, the economic base of your community must be maintained and expanded. Negative, restrictive policies, if practiced at this time, must be paid for in the future with shrinking property values and a decline in community services. I beleiveit is much more prudent and intelligent to make wise investments in Community Development today, to preserve the values already created here.

There have been many complaints in the past, that we have not received and are not receiving sufficient attention and help from senior governments in the advancement and development of our community. I am convinced that if we take the initiative to do something for ourselves, we will attract all the attention and help that we need and deserve. With these observations and principles in mind, I ask for your vote, for the office of Mayor, on October 14, 1970.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kusmierz

Evansburg Church Setting for Ceremony

A lovely Autumn wedding was solemnized Saturday, September 12, at 2:00 p.m. in the Evansburg Catholic Church when Linda Darlene Schuster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schuster of Evansburg became the bride of Mr. John Donald Kusmierz son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Kusmierz of Wildwood.

Father Coltier officiated.

Baskets of pink roses and white carnations decorated the church. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Stella Lorenz of Evansburg.

The bride, given in marriage by her father looked lovely in her gown of lace train coat over nylon. Her veil, made by herself was held in place with a headpiece of pearl hearts and sequined white leaves. She carried a bouquet of pink roses complimented with lillies of the valley.

Attending the bride were Verna Demkew, Lynn Marshall and Paullette Portier. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of green Poe de-elegant and daisies trimmed the bodice. They carried bouquets of pink and white roses.

Best men were Mike Kusmierz, Terry Demkew, and Brian Stewart.

Ushers were Marvin Schuster, and Karl Kusmierz.

A reception was held in the Wildwood Community Hall at 6:00 p.m. for 300 guests.

A three tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table, decorated with pink rosettes to match the bride's bouquet. Two baskets of pink roses and white carnations with silver candles flanked the cake. A dance followed. Ohls brothers provided the music.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a crimpline coat of apricot, with white accessories, blue en corsage.

The groom's mother chose a double knit coat dress of blue and orange en corsage.

Mr. John Ohnesty was Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Otto Schuster, uncle of the bride, gave the toast to the bride. The groom responded.

For her weekend trip the bride donned a three-piece arnel suit of brown plaid with a gold blouse and brown accessories.

The couple are making their home in Edmonton. They will take a wedding trip later, to the west coast.

Out of town guests were from Chillawack, B.C.; Spruce Grove; Stony Plain; Edmonton; Camrose.

HOME FROM ORAN

Mr. Jim Clark has arrived home from Oran, Algeria where he has been working as an electrician, his wife returned before his two year stint was finished and he was also greeted by his new six month old son.

Brownies to Start Meetings

Regular Brownie meetings will start next Monday and Tuesday, September 28 and 29, at 4:00 p.m. Girls may register on the day of their choice, but due to a shortage of leaders, and the limit of membership rule, it may not be possible to accomodate all those wishing to join. The fees are the same as last year for both Brownies and Girl Guides, a total of $4.50, broken down as follows: Local Association, $2.00 and Girl Guides of Canada $2.50. All mothers are members of the Local Association, and the $2.00 ensures that all members donate equally to provide adequate funds to start off the year. The other part of the fee is divided between national headquarters and the District Commissioners office, and includes registration expenses for both girls and leaders, insurance, and Commissioners expenses. The Local Association is still looking for persons willing to help organize a third pack. If you are willing to do so, or have any questions regarding Guides or Brownies, please phone Shirley Machan, L.A. president at 542-3856.

1912 Calgary Stampede

The Stampede. Rip-roaringest rodeo of them all. It came bucking out of the chute in 1912 and hit full stride in the same rugged, robust era that launched Lethbridge Pilsner — both of them complete with a crazy cast of characters. They're part of a proud heritage, an unchanging tradition: Alberta's original rodeo and Alberta's original Pilsner, full of good old-fashioned flavour that's still going strong. So call for a beer with real beer taste: Lethbridge Pil. It's made for Great Moments.

Plan Annual Poppy Sale

Branch No. 269, along with all other Legion Branches throughout Canada, is again promoting the Annual Poppy Day Campaign and Remembrance Day service.

Locally the Campaign is off to a start by having each student of the local junior and high schools made aware of the essay contest. This contest has become an annual affair which provides participating students a chance to win up to $150, plus a trip to Ottawa with a parent or guardian. It also creates the necessary incentives for many of our young people to gain the intimate knowledge and feelings which promote pride of country, love of honour and respect for their elders.

However, it is not enough that just our youth become involved. Remembrance Day and Poppy Day are symbolic of the sacrifice that so many of our comrades-in-arms made and it is only right to remember, by purchasing wreaths, poppies and stickers to insure that the Poppy Funds across the country are maintained in the manner required, and by attending the Remembrance Day Service to rededicate ourselves to a "Peace on this earth" for which many gave their all.

When the Legion representative visit your home, office or place of business do your fair share to insure that they are remembered. Buy in the manner commensurate with your circumstances, but do buy.

BUCK LAKE NEWS

On Monday the 14th, a ten man delegation, headed by Lawson Patten, attended the County Council Meeting in Wetaskiwin to state that the 4,500 lb load limit that was to be enforced has not been done to the full extent, and more help is needed in this area.

Elizabeth Kaserman was a Rimbey visitor on Wednesday. Also on Wednesday, Mrs. Esther Fullerton attended the principals meeting in Wetaskiwin. Mrs. Leopal Larson took her class of grade seven and eight students.

The Ken Johnsons spent almost a month in B.C. this summer; while there, they attended the McLean Reunion at Summerland. There were 75 persons present at this gathering. Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Johnson were in B.C. for a week.

Geneva Patten is driving a new school bus which they purchased for this school term.

Raymond McKay is tearing down the old store formerly owned by Steve Livoy in an effort to help in cleaning up the hamlet of Buck Lake. However, during the time that he is absent from the premises, persons unknown are using the building for bathroom facilities. He asked me to let those persons know that they are welcome to some of the lumber, if they wish to build an outhouse, as apparently they are in dire need.

The September meeting of the Ladies' Friendly Circle Club was held Wednesday evening of the 9th, at the home of Mrs. Margaret Roberts with seven members present. Quite a lot of business was discussed. Kathleen Kiss won the draw, supplied by Margaret Roberts. After the meeting was adjourned, a delicious lunch was served by our Hostess.

Congratulations are extended to Ivan Bohning and Brenda Glynn on their engagement. Brenda is from Lethbridge, but both she and Ivan are working in Edmonton.

Jim and Sheila Wilson of Rocky spent a few days with her parents and family, Dale and Grace Hammond, and Gary (Sheilas' brother) and went back with them when they returned home.

Arvid Kellgren, Nick, Edna, and Pat Wasyk, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wasyk all motored to Creston, B.C. to attend the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Wasyk's daughter-in-law, and their grand-daughter. They were away for four days. Dorothy Schenk stayed with Peggy-Ann, Doug and Ricky to help with the chores.

Congratulations to Barry Dunne and his new bride, who were married in Leduc, Saturday, August 22nd. Guests attending from Buck Lake were Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Fullerton and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Woods.

Mrs. Agnes Micku is visiting at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Elaine and Joel McLean and boys.

Belated birthday greetings are extended to Vera Brzus, whose birthday was Sunday, September 5th. Best wishes for a very happy anniversary to Wilfred and Goldie Anderson on the occasion of their 28th wedding anniversary, September 20th.

Everyone will be pleased to hear that Cora Fontaine has taken over the management of the Hotel Cafe again, as of September 9th.

Sunday, September 6th was the occasion for a pleasant get-together for the Wennerstrom relations who met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Wennerstrom, to visit with Arnold and Vera Wennerstrom of Vancouver, B.C. Those present were Doris and Mel Jones of Winfield, Bob and Cecile Wennerstrom and family of Alder Flats, Eric, May, Susan, Debbie, and Johnny Wennerstrom, also of Alder Flats, Margaret Haire, and her daughter Lorraine Morrow, Helen Ledingham, Irene Siebel, and David and Carol Peterson all of Edmonton.

A memorial service for the late Mr. Oluf Sheflo, of North Vancouver, B.C. was held at Buck Lake Recreation Centre on August 27th for relatives and friends.

Heartiest congratulations to Pearl and Lawrence Schenk on the occasion of their 27th Wedding Anniversary, Friday, September 11th.

Mrs. Agnes Micku travelled to the coast to visit her daughter Alice and Bob Irwin and family at Chemanius, B.C.

Weekend visitors at the home of Lawrence and Pearl Schenk were his sister Ida and Jim Todd of Czar, Alberta.

Visiting with the George McLeods on Sunday was the Glenn family of Lacombe; Jim and Lila McLeod of Vernon, B.C.; Linda and Doug Goltz and family of Winfield; son Brian and his buddy Norman Tucker of Drayton Valley, and Father Carrier of Rimbey.

FAMILY RETURNS FROM ALGERIA

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Pare and family arrived back in Canada, Wednesday evening at the Edmonton International Airport after a twelve hour flight from Paris, France. For the past two years, Mr. Pare has been working in Oran, Algeria as a driller and is now on a two month holiday.

Ted Bouchard of Drayton Valley wins two tickets to a home game of the Vancouver Canucks in mid-October. Ken Gillis president of the club presents the two tickets to Mr. Bouchard.

The Homemaker

Mrs. Sheila Brown, D.H.E.

WHAT AM I?

Hi! I've been wanting to write this article for some time now, but decided to wait until fall. Now that many of your children are back in school, I thought that you moms in the district might also be interested in some tips on that all important profession, Homemaking.

It always irks me when I hear a woman who is asked what her occupation is, to answer "Just a housewife". Because I feel that your role as a homemaker is all important, I'm going to answer your query "What is a Home Economist?" and you just might gain some insight into a service we may provide for you.

I am employed by the Department of Agriculture, Extension Division, Home Economics Branch, as a District Home Economist. My rural area includes the County of Strathcona, County of Parkland, and the area west from Evansburg to Jasper.

The field of Home Economics is as wide as the field of a homemaker. Home Economists are trained in the areas of clothing and textiles, family living, home management, good and nutrition, home design and consumer buymanship.

"What does that mean you can do for us?" is the immediate response that I hear. Read below to see if your District Home Economist could assist you with any of the following: buying an appliance; purchasing a carpet; house plans; remodelling; sewing techniques; stain removal; dieting; handicrafts; food catering; fabrics and finishes; fabric care; credit; budgeting; leadership training; menu planning; color schemes; freezing; home storage; food buymanship; interior decorating.

Now you ask, "How can I contact the Home Economist?" You may write, phone or drop into the office at 10426-81st Ave. Edmonton (433-8060) or contact me on Thursdays at the Stony Plain County Bldg. (777-2231). If you'd like to keep in touch through the news media, follow this Homemaker Column which appears weekly in the Strathcona News, Edmonton Star, The Western Review, and Stony Plain Reporter. You might like to receive a copy of the D.H.E. News and Views, a newsletter that I put out every two months. To receive your free copy, simply contact the Edmonton office and ask to have your name added to the mailing list.

If you have an interior design problem you might like to contact me for an appointment for a home visit. We also have a house plan service for those families building or remodelling homes.

Another area of my work includes meetings, clinics, seminars and workships where we discuss any aspect of homemaking. You need not belong to an organized group (W.I., U.C.W., Y-Neighbours, F.W.U.A., etc.) to hold a meeting to duscuss a homemaking topic. Simply invite a group of women from your community to your home or plan to gather at a common meeting place and I will be pleased to come and discuss a topic of your choice.

If I've lit a spark of interest in your area - I'm satisfied. Now let's hear from you if I can be of some assistance. The Home Economist Extension service is yours for the asking.

See you next week when we discuss the work of other Home Economists.

Stonier fields produce higher potato yields says Dr. G.R. Saini of the Canada Agriculture Research Station At Fredericton, N.B. It appears that the stonier the field, the warmer and more moist the soil. And that makes for better growing conditions.

Elks Major Program Assist Children

The national fund of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, and the Ladies Auxiliary, the Order of the Royal Purple, known as the Purple Cross Fund, realized a total of $102,620.00 in 1969-70, most of which is used to assist children under the age of 18, it was revealed recently by Elk officials.

It was also noted that an increase of over 15% in specific case assistance has taken place over previous years.

The money is donated by 232 Lodges across Canada, from Vancouver Island to Newfoundland.

The largest assistance grant from the Fund went to the Deaf Detection and Development project amounting to $139,688.00.

The money is used to assist with medical expenses or other needs which may arise concerning children. Many provincial Lodges have their own projects, such as Saskatchewan which maintains five Senior Citizen homes, a $1,000,000.00 project.

Other local Lodges assist and sponsor children's athletic groups, hospitals and homes.
